Daenali violates one of the oldest customs of her tribe: she convinces her betrothed to take her surname. The council of patriarchs deems this witchcraft and banishes her after considering far, far worse. Daenali flees, pursued by a councilman who still seeks to impose the harshest penalty. She also must confront the god of her people, the Great Gray Wolf. Bestselling writer David H. Hendrickson spins this tale of a memorable woman's courage in the face of an evil patriarchal society and the god behind it. Also includes a bonus Daenali story: "Remember My Name."
