This is a collection of stories about my life, my son Jake, and baseball. It is about the struggles I had to overcome to achieve my dream of playing professional baseball. In my pursuit, I learned that you really can do anything you want to, if you commit, and don't ever, ever, ever, ever quit. While chasing something I've always wanted, I found something that I loved even more. I became a father. I love being a dad I wanted to be the best dad I could possibly be.
