Few paragraphs from this eBook is as follows,u003cbr /u003eu003cbr /u003e

More and More Parents are afraid of disciplining their children. Sometimes this is because they are concerned discipline will hurt their child's self esteem.u003cbr /u003eu003cbr /u003e

Sometimes it is because they don't want to risk losing their child's love or good feelings towards them. Sometimes it is just too much work.u0026#xa0;u003cbr /u003eu003cbr /u003e

Sometimes it is just too painful for the parent to watch their child suffer consequences.u003cbr /u003eu003cbr /u003e

As a result, we at times go to great lengths to avoid our children receiving consequences - We tend to try using talk instead of using consequences. We lecture. We yell. We scold. We lay guilt trips. We warn. We threaten, sometimes even with rage. And, we constantly remind. Basically, We talk hoping we don't have to take any action or levy any consequences.
